

Hualien Detention Center runs a car beauty training class. Professional faculty teaches the hoster a skill.

This year, the Hualien Detention Center cooperated with the Lord's Love House and the Hualien Employment Center to set up a car beauty training class, hired professional teachers to station in the station, taught the caravan beauty technology, and practiced the exercises. The training host had a skill and improved ability to earn a living skill, to adapt to social life.