

Hualien Detention Center cooperates with the National Army Hualien General Hospital. The first drug addiction treatment plan is underway.

For the first time this year, the Hualien Detention Center co-organized the "108 Corrective Integral Drug Addiction Treatment Service and Quality Improvement Program" with the National Army Hualien General Hospital. Since June, psychiatric attending physicians and clinical psychologists have entered the detention center for addiction clinics and group therapy courses.